

The Neville Cup, awarded to the most efficiently run local NFU branch in Lincolnshire and South Humberside, went to Louth who totalled 57 points. In equal second place were Grantham and the Isle of Axholme with Alford fourth and Horncastle fifth. In our picture above, a happy Louth NFU chairman Philip Shucksmith shows off the trophy with pride. Photo: LSG (H).